Cover Photo/Photo couverture : Algonquin Section member Scott McPherson took this shot of a barred owl that swooped in and perched above his head, just before sunrise while setting up for a morning of deer hunting near North Bay. It was a magnificent day in the forest—even though the only shooting he did was with his Nikon/Scott McPherson, un membre de la section Algonquin, a capturé en photo cette chouette rayée qui venait de le frôler et qui s'était perchée au-dessus de sa tête, peu avant le levée du soleil alors qu'il se préparait pour une matinée de chasse au chevreuil près de North Bay. Ce fut une magnifique journée en forêt—même si seul son Nikon a atteint la cible.
